Three stages			... plus one
1. Information. Clarify your personal view on the subject, reading and selecting the cards which you feel are most important for you. Read the cards aloud to the other players. Each player chooses two info cards they find significant and briefly summarizes them to the group. ± 20min.	2. Discussion. Together with the other players, start discussing. Everyone gets a chance to speak. Use your cards to provide arguments. As a group, identify one or more larger themes that you all feel relevant. Are there any additional topics that you consider important for the discussion and are not present in the info cards? ± 20 min	3. Shared group response. As a group, read the proposed positions. Try as a group to sort the positions from the most important to the least important. Can you reach a positive consensus? You can formulate a new common policy if you wish. ± 20 min.	4. Appoint a spokesperson and share the results of your group and see how other people who played this game voted. ± 15 min
